Jan Erika

Jan Erika is a multi-media artist with multiple artistic talents; she has painted live in Fortnum and Mason, as the first ever live in-house artist, The Royal Academy and Kensington Palace. Alongside her journey to one of the UK's most sought-after abstract artists, she has enjoyed a successful career in concert halls as a classically trained cellist, she has featured on numerous recordings including those by legendary musician Paul Weller and most recently, Stone Foundation.

Charlotte Morgan

Charlotte graduated from her degree in Fine Art at the University for the Creative Arts, Canterbury, in 2011. There is no single medium that Charlotte sticks to, simply adopting different styles and techniques to suit individual designs. This fluidity suits her well, allowing numerous successful collections to come to fruition.

Adrian Bradbury

Adrian Bradbury attended Goldsmiths in London followed by a degree in Fine Art at West Surrey College of Art, then a Post Grad Diploma in Photography. After the digital revolution he began to produce photo collage illustrations. Through various steps and processes, combining traditional and digital media he explores abstract colour, combining painting, drawing and photography in new and exciting ways.
